Review

This has been the worst first half of a year for developed market equities in over 50 years. To make matters worse, there has been no hiding place: government bonds and cash, usually safe havens, have been hit by higher inflation. Central banks have struggled to deal with the resurgence of inflation, even as they have brought to an end the long era of "easy money" that has been in place since the Global Financial Crisis of 2008. It seems the adage rings true: one crisis leads to another.

For Growth investors, this has resulted in an extremely tricky period, to say the least. The threat of higher interest rates has stalked markets, leading to a significant de-rating of Growth stocks with no correlation to the resilience of the earnings. By the end of May 2022, the MSCI World Growth index had underperformed its Value counterpart by 25% over the prior 6 months, the greatest such underperformance since records began more than 45 years ago.

Similarly, Quality underperformed across most geographies during the period, including the US (by 2%), Europe (by 4%) and the UK (by 13%).

Although some may have anticipated a marked underperformance of SmallCap versus LargeCap as is historically typical during periods of market stress, on a global basis, SmallCap has held up relatively well. On a more localised basis, however, the underperformance of the asset class was far more pronounced: in the UK, notably, SmallCap underperformed LargeCap by a whopping 19% during the first 6 months of the year, the largest such underperformance in 20 years. SmallCap also had a tough time on the Continent, where it underperformed by 11%. This, however, is explained not so much by investors' aversion to smaller companies, but by the make-up of index constituents. In both the UK and Europe, the best performing sector has been Energy, an area of the market dominated by LargeCap names.

This synchronised rotation out of Growth, Quality and SmallCap resulted in a perfect storm for our Fund range, which has a distinctive and consistent "Quality Growth" bias.

Outlook

While the outlook remains uncertain, the significant decline in equity prices has shifted the risk / reward balance. Equities have significantly de-rated, particularly those in the Quality and Growth parts of the market.

As fears of a central bank-induced recession grow, we feel increasingly confident that most of the outperformance of Value versus Growth may now be behind us. As consumer demand starts to show signs of weakening, some raw material prices are also starting to fall, paving the way for inflation to come down in due course. This, in turn, should halt the de-rating of Growth and Quality companies.

In an uncertain economic environment, the Quality companies that we favour – those with sound fundamentals, plenty of cash on their balance sheets and good management teams – are now trading at attractive valuation levels. As long-term investors, this is an exciting time to be investing.

We thank you for your continued support.

Fair Value Estimation

Under FRS 102, the Company is required to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Level 1 The unadjusted traded price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 Inputs other than traded prices included within Level 1 that are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 Inputs are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

The best evidence of fair value is a traded price for an identical asset or liability in an active market and is therefore classified within Level 1. These include actively traded equities, exchange traded derivatives and other traded securities. Traded in an active market in this context means traded prices are readily and regularly available and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

When traded prices are unavailable, the price of a recent transaction for an identical asset or liability provides evidence of fair value and is classified within Level 2, as long as there has not been a significant change in economic circumstances or a significant lapse of time since the transaction took place. These include money market instruments, certain traded equities and open-ended collective investment schemes. If the Company can demonstrate that the last transaction price is not a good estimate of fair value (e.g. because it reflects the amount that an entity would receive or pay in a forced transaction, involuntary liquidation or distress sale), then that price is adjusted.

If the market for the asset or liability is not active and recent transactions of an identical asset or liability on their own are not a good estimate of fair value, the Company estimates the fair value by using a valuation technique and classifies the asset or liability within Level 3. These include investment-grade government and corporate bonds, over-the-counter derivatives, private equity and corporate debt securities. The objective of using a valuation technique is to estimate what the transaction price would have been on the measurement date in an arm's length exchange motivated by normal business considerations. Valuation techniques include using recent arm's length market transactions for an identical asset or liability between knowledgeable, willing parties, if available, reference to the current fair value of another asset or liability that is substantially the same as the asset or liability being measured, discounted cash flow analysis and option pricing model.

If there is a valuation technique commonly used by market participants to price the asset or liability and that technique has been demonstrated to provide reliable estimates of prices obtained in actual market transactions, the Company uses that technique.

The Company's investments values are based on traded market prices in active markets and therefore all of the Company's investments were classified as Level 1 at 30 June 2022 and 31 December 2021. There were no transfers between levels during the financial period (31 December 2021: nil). The Company does not hold any investments classified within Level 2 or Level 3. The fair value levels of the securities held by the Funds are monitored on a monthly basis by the Investment Manager. There were no financial liabilities held at 30 June 2022 and 31 December 2021.

6. Soft Commission Arrangements

No soft commission arrangements were entered into during the financial period ended 30 June 2022, the financial year ended 31 December 2021 or the financial period ended 30 June 2021.

7. Efficient Portfolio Management

The Company may, on behalf of a Fund, use techniques and instruments for the purposes of efficient portfolio management (including but not limited to forward foreign currency contracts, futures contracts, options, put and call options on securities, indices and currencies, stock index contracts, swap contracts) subject to the restrictions and limitations laid down by the Central Bank. The Company may engage in such techniques and instruments for the reduction of risk, cost or the generation of additional capital or income for a Fund with an appropriate level of risk, taking into account the risk profile of the Company as described in the Prospectus and the general provisions of the UCITS Regulations.

The Company may employ techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities provided that such techniques and instruments are used for efficient portfolio management purposes and techniques and instruments intended to provide protection against exchange rate risk and equity market risk. Where applicable, the entities to which direct and indirect operational costs and/or fees have been paid during the annual period to the relevant accounting year end of a Fund will be disclosed in the annual report for such period.

The prices of derivative instruments, including futures and options prices, are highly volatile. Price movements of forward foreign currency contracts, futures contracts and other derivative contracts are influenced by, among other things, interest rates, changing supply and demand relationships, trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programmes and policies of governments, and national and international political and economic events and policies. In addition, governments from time to time intervene, directly and by regulation, in certain markets, particularly markets in currencies and interest rate related futures and options. Such intervention often is intended directly to influence prices and may, together with other factors, cause all of such markets to move rapidly in the same direction because of, among other things, interest rate fluctuations.

Financial period ended 30 June 2022

The use of such techniques and instruments for efficient portfolio management involves certain special risks including: a dependence on the ability to predict movements in the prices of securities being hedged and movements in interest rates, imperfect correlations between the hedging instruments and the securities or market sectors being hedged, the fact that skills needed to use these instruments are different from those needed to select the Company's securities, the possible absence of a liquid market for any particular instrument at any particular time and possible impediments to effective portfolio management such as the ability to meet redemption requests or other short term obligations because of the percentage of the Company's assets being segregated to cover its obligations.

The Company does not currently use financial derivative instruments and it is not the current intention of the Investment Manager to employ efficient portfolio management techniques. A risk management process will be submitted to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank's requirements prior to the Company engaging in financial derivative transactions on behalf of a Fund.

The Company did not enter into any derivative contracts during the financial period ended 30 June 2022, the financial year ended 31 December 2021 or the financial period ended 30 June 2021 for efficient portfolio management or any other purpose.

8. Share Capital and Redeemable Participating Shares

The authorised share capital of the Company is 1,000,000,000 redeemable participating Shares of no par value. The redeemable participating Shares issued by the Company are freely transferable and are entitled to participate equally in the profits and dividends of the relevant Fund and its assets upon liquidation. The redeemable participating Shares, which are of no par value and which must be fully paid up on issue, carry no preferential or pre-emptive rights. Holders of redeemable participating Shares are entitled on a poll to one vote at general meetings of the Company in respect of each redeemable participating Share held.

Subscriber Shares

The Company has authorised share capital of \in 38,100 (divided into 38,100 Subscriber Shares of one Euro each). As at 30 June 2022 and 31 December 2021 there were 7 Subscriber Shares of \in 1 each in issue (being the minimum share capital of the Company) held by the Investment Manager. Subscriber Shares do not entitle the holders to any dividend and on a winding-up entitle the holder to receive the amount paid thereon but not otherwise to participate in the assets of the Company. The Subscriber Shares do not form part of redeemable participating Shareholders' Funds. They are thus disclosed by way of this note only. In the opinion of the Directors, this disclosure reflects the nature of the Company's business as an investment fund.

Redemption of Shares

Shareholders may redeem their Shares on and with effect from any dealing day at the NAV per Share calculated on or with respect to the relevant dealing day in accordance with the procedures specified in the relevant Supplement (save during any period when the calculation of NAV is suspended). If the redemption of part only of a Shareholder's shareholding would leave the Shareholder holding less than the Minimum Holding for the relevant Fund, the Directors or their delegates may, if they think fit, redeem the whole of that Shareholder's holding.

In the event that the net distributable income generated by the Montanaro UK Income Fund and by the Montanaro European Income Fund during the relevant financial period and attributable to the relevant Class is insufficient to pay a distribution which is declared, the Directors may at their discretion determine such dividends may be paid from the capital of the Fund. Shareholders should note that where the payment of distributions are paid out of capital, this represents and amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of the amount originally invested or capital gains attributable to and may result in an immediate decrease in the value of the Shares of the relevant Class and will reduce any capital appreciation for the Shareholders of such Class.

Share Classes

Shares will be issued to investors as Shares of a Class in the Funds. The Directors may, whether on the establishment of each Fund or from time to time, with prior notification to, and clearance by the Central Bank, create more than one Class of Shares in each of the Funds. The Directors may, in their absolute discretion, differentiate between Classes of Shares, without limitation, as to currency denomination of a particular Class, dividend policy, hedging strategies if any applied to the designated currency of particular Classes, fees and expenses or the minimum subscription or minimum holding applicable.

8. Share Capital and Redeemable Participating Shares (continued)

Where the amount subscribed for Shares is not equivalent to an exact number of Shares, fractions of Shares may be issued to the nearest one thousandth of a Share. The holder of a fraction of a Share may not exercise any voting right in respect of such Share.
